

CUAHSI HIS Software Licensing Policy

Oct 18, 2007

Principles

1. The CUAHSI HIS project uses the Berkeley Software Distribution (BSD) license to distribute its software. This license satisfies the National Science Foundation's requirement that software produced on the CUAHSI HIS project be distributed as Open Source.
2. Software products created under this project are the property of the university within which the programmer works, not of any individual student or researcher working on the project.
3. Individual institutions who are part of the CUAHSI HIS project adapt the generic Berkeley Software Distribution license by identifying their particular institutions as <OWNER> and <ORGANIZATION>, and by specifying the <YEAR> in which the software is licensed. The generic license is given in the template given below, as obtained from the Open Source Template: <http://www.opensource.org/licenses/bsd-license.php>

For example, for application at the University of California at Berkeley:

<OWNER> = Regents of the University of California
<ORGANIZATION> = University of California, Berkeley
<YEAR> = 2007

4. In a software application, a programmer puts the full license in a header in the software itself, or in the software the programmer includes the copyright notice and a header that says that it is licensed under the Berkeley Software Distribution with a reference to a separate file which contains the full license.

Application

Here is the license template:

```
*****
Copyright (c) <YEAR>, <OWNER>
```

All rights reserved.

- * Neither the name of the <ORGANIZATION> nor the names of its contributors may be used to endorse or promote products derived from this software without specific prior written permission.

THIS SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED BY THE COPYRIGHT HOLDERS AND CONTRIBUTORS "AS IS" AND ANY EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE ARE DISCLAIMED. Example for The University of Texas at Austin

Here is how this license looks when adapted for software components from the University of Texas at Austin produced in 2007. This university does not distinguish between <OWNER> and <ORGANIZATION>.

<OWNER> = The University of Texas at Austin
 <ORGANIZATION> = The University of Texas at Austin
 <YEAR> = 2007

Copyright (c) The University of Texas at Austin

All rights reserved.
